PRESS RELEASE

REGISTRATION FOR YOUNG PEOPLE'S SUMMER CLASSES SET FOR JUNE 5 AND 6

Young People's Classes at The Cleveland Museum of Art this summer begin June 23, and registration is set for Friday, June 5, and Saturday, June 6. Each of the fifteen courses is designed for children at a specific age level--from three to seventeen--to learn about the Museum's collections by visiting the galleries and creating their own artwork.

While children are enrolled in morning classes, adults may attend a series of six free gallery talks on the history of Western art. Talks are from 10:00-11:15 am on Tuesdays and repeated Wednesdays, beginning June 23 and 24.

Museum members may register from 10:00 am to 4:00 pm June 5; members and nonmembers may register from 10:00 am to 4:00 pm June 6. (Memberships are available at registration.) Classes are limited in size, and enrollment is on a first come, first served basis. Each student must be registered by an adult, in person, at the Museum; children need not be present to register.

Members who are unable to register on Friday, June 5, may reserve a space by calling the Museum June 2, 3, or 4 at 421-7340, extension 181. These registrations will not be complete until fees are paid and enrollment cards are picked up at the Museum on the afternoon of Saturday, June 6.

The course fee is $20 for members and $25 for nonmembers, to be paid at registration. Classes for children with parents are $30 for members, $40 for nonmembers. For information about financial aid, call Susan Kaesgen, Department of Education, 421-7340, extension 182, before registration.

Summer classes begin June 23 and end July 31. Classes meet twice a week for six weeks, either on Tuesdays/Thursdays or on Wednesdays/Fridays. Each course is offered from 10:00-11:30 am and is repeated from 1:30-3:00 pm. The attached flyer describes individual classes.
